

SWINDON COUNSELLORS & PSYCHOTHERAPISTS NETWORK

PRIVACY POLICY

Registration data

Information that you give us as part of the Registration process ("Registration data") is securely kept with access limited to Swindon Counselling Service and Willows Counselling Service for the sole purpose of administering the Swindon Counsellors and Psychotherapists Network. We will not release copies of the Registration data to anyone else.

Automatically collected data

We do not automatically collect any personally identifiable information.

Purpose of collecting data

Automatically collected data is collected solely for statistical purposes about usage of this website. We use Google Analytics to count how many people visit the Swindon Counsellors and Psychotherapists Network website and which pages are viewed. The only reason we collect data is to monitor the site's usage and help improvement.

The data being collected

The collected data comprises:

- The web pages viewed and the duration of visits.
- The type of internet browser that is being used.
- The screen resolution.
- The PC's operating system.
- How this site was reached (for example, via a search engine, such as: Google, Yahoo, etc).

The above data is typically collected by website owners and is common industry practice.

How the data is collected

The data is collected automatically using a small text file called a cookie, which is stored on the PC. It is important to note that this cookie is not the type called a 'tracking cookie' or a 'third-party cookie' which permits information to be acquired about visits from one website to another and are commonly used for advertising purposes. For more information about cookies, click on: Wikipedia – cookie

How collected information is used

Google Analytics is a freely available system that aggregates data into a presentable form. A secondary usage of the cookie is for the benefit of the user as it contains the web font-size most recently used, so that on the next usage, the site will re-commence with that size, i.e., the AAAAA.

Sample data

If you would like to see the data being collected, please contact the Webmaster via the Contact us page and we'll send you a sample.

Cookie control

Web browsers (Internet Explorer, Firefox, etc); permit you to control whether cookies are to be stored, the types of cookies, their duration etc.

If you find anything on the website that you find offensive or you think needs changing, please let us know.
